

Coping With Hope Support Group

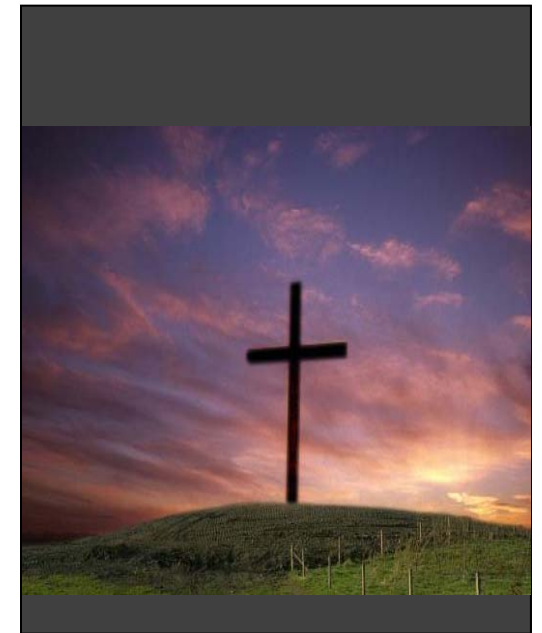

This non-denominational support group was formed for one reason, You. Those dealing with cancer have often told us there are a variety of groups out there that provide education, information, and advice.

However, there are fewer who deal with the emotional and spiritual side of the disease. People dealing with cancer have told us how often the disease affects their emotional well being. They tell us they sometimes have feelings of helplessness, loneliness, and frustration.

This support group seeks to encourage you, pray for you, and provide the emotional and spiritual support that people tell us is so desperately needed. Come join other cancer survivors, their family members, and loved ones to share your stories, fears, and frustrations, as others share theirs. Leave each meeting feeling loved & encouraged.

Coping With Hope
A Spiritual Cancer Support Group
1201 State Highway 360
Mansfield, Texas 76063

COPING WITH HOPE

www.CopingWithHope.com

Dedicated to helping people better cope with cancer through encouragement, prayer,
and support

All rights reserved 2008 onward

Do any of these factors apply to you?

Recently diagnosed with cancer

Been dealing with cancer for awhile now

Someone who is caring for a person with cancer

Spouse or family member of someone with cancer

Feelings of fear, aloneness and/or helplessness

Concerned for your future, if not survival

Caregiver feeling overwhelmed with your responsibilities

Each Meeting Will Feature

New members will be able to share their feelings about their diagnosis, treatment, and outlook.

Existing members will be able to update the group about their prognosis, treatment, fears, and concerns.

All members will be able to share success stories and things that have been a blessing.

There will be a time where members can tell others how they can help to encourage them.

At the close of each meeting, members can request prayer or pray for themselves and/or others.

Coping With Hope

A Spiritual Support Group for People, Family, & Friends Dealing With Cancer

www.CopingWithHope.com

Coping With Hope Meets the 1st Thursday of each month at

Walnut Ridge Baptist Church
1201 State Highway 360
Mansfield, TX 76063

For More Information
Call 817-473-1461

or email
CopingWithHope@charter.net